

NATIONAL CRIMEBEAT

THE YOUTH CRIME PREVENTION CHARITY
OF THE HIGH SHERIFFS' ASSOCIATION OF ENGLAND & WALES

Do you know of a group of young people or individual working to make communities in your county safer?

If so, we want to hear about them.

Each March, National Crimebeat organises a prestigious awards ceremony to give recognition to the most successful crime prevention projects carried out by young people. The projects can be submitted from any organisation in England and Wales.

National Crimebeat is the youth crime prevention charity of the High Sheriffs' Association of England and Wales. The Charity encourages young people (between 5 and 25 years) to work together to combat crime and assist the victims of crime.

National Crimebeat is a Charitable Company limited by guarantee, Charity no: 1068034 Company 3475763.
Registered office: National Crimebeat, Ltd., 24, Nicholas Street, Chester CH1 2AU.

Is my project eligible?

Projects must:

- Prevent/reduce crime or anti-social behaviour or assist victims of crime
- Be delivered by young people, aged 25 and under, and involve them in the management

Projects may be proposed for an award by anyone, and endorsed by the High Sheriff of the county. You can find the contact details of your county's High Sheriff here.

It's simple to submit a project.

Complete the application form which can be downloaded from the website at www.national-crimebeat.org.uk.

Before completing the application discuss the project with your High Sheriff who will submit it.
